

After School Chinese

Mandarin Chinese Language Course

Watch, Listen & Learn

Join Xiao Hua, Ai Ling, Ding Ding and their friends in China

Finally, a language course for children that goes beyond the simple greetings, colors and numbers. Originally produced by CCTV in China for English-speaking children, After School Chinese will help children of all ages become proficient in conversational Mandarin Chinese while also learning about Chinese culture.

The host, Donald Holder, an American teacher living in China, encourages and engages the viewers to understand the contexts as they "explore the wonderful world of Chinese."

With the After School Chinese Language Course, children learn to speak conversational Chinese by watching, listening and repeating how Chinese children speak in authentic settings and real-life situations. Children will begin speaking Chinese with the very first lesson!
